DTS 24/7 SUPPORT

SUPPORT SITE – MANUALS AND TECH NOTES

All current tech notes and released manuals for current and discontinued products are posted on our free online SUPPORT site at <http://www.dts.com/support/digitalcinema/products/>.

TECH TALK RELEASES

Previous and current TechTalk releases are posted at <http://www.dts.com/support/digitalcinema/techtalk.php>. Remember that many issues contain troubleshooting tips and solutions to common field issues.

DOWNLOADING SOFTWARE

Software updates for selected units can be downloaded free from the SUPPORT section at any time. Go to the specific product and click "software downloads." Available software will be listed as well as instructions for properly downloading and enabling the update. Release notes are also provided.

Software for the following products are currently available for download:

- XD10P Setup Software
- XD10P unit Firmware
- DTS-6AD/-ECP Setup Software
- DTS-6AD/-ECP Upload/download Software

ONLINE SELF HELP COMING SOON!

In an effort to better serve you, a new exciting feature is coming to the DTS support site. We are developing a new self-help module that will allow you to:

- Submit and track questions to DTS Tech Support personnel
- Find quick solutions to product and field issues
- Troubleshooting tips
- Setup Guidelines
- Track progress of items returned to DTS
- Register to be emailed product updates including TechTalk

We expect the new module to be available Spring 2008.
